NEW YORK (CBSNewYork) — Police confiscated a stash of drugs, guns and cash in a bust this week in Sunnyside, Queens.

Around 5 a.m. Tuesday, members of the NYPD Emergency Services Unit and the Patrol Borough Queens North Anti-Crime Units raided a residence at 39-14 44th St. in Queens, police said.

They found four loaded firearms, three imitation pistols, 169 rounds of ammunition, seven marijuana plants, about 17.5 grams of crack cocaine, 136 Hydromorphone pills, and 48 Xanax pills – along with $3,124 in cash, police said.

A man at the residence – Daniel Tone, 42 – was arrested at the scene. He was charged with eight counts of criminal possession of a weapon, as well as drug charges and violation of local law charges.

The seized firearms included a .44 Ruger revolver, a defaced .357 Taurus Magnum revolver, a defaced 9mm Glock 17 semi-automatic, and a .22 High Standard semi-automatic.

The imitation firearms included a fake AR-15 assault rifle, 9mm Uzi, and 9mm Glock 26 semi-automatic.

Police did not indicate whether they believed Tone was involved with any criminal organization. A charge of criminal sale of a controlled substance was among the drug charges, but police did not elaborate.

Are toy guns illegal in queens? If not, why were they displayed on the table? Oh yeah..garnish to punch up the visuals.

The AR-15 is not and has never been an assault weapon. It is the semi-automatic civilian version of the military M-16. CBS knows this but deliberately continues to put out misinformation. Shame. Stop the propaganda!

This is obviously all planted by the police. See shotgun shells but no shotgun? Everybody knows that guns are banned in NYC. Only cops are allowed to have these guns that they'd planted on this poor guy.
