A man in Queens was busted in possession of a mountain of drugs and an arsenal of guns, authorities said Wednesday.

In a raid at 5 a.m. Tuesday at a home on 44th Street in Sunnyside, Daniel Tone, 42, was found with four genuine handguns and several imitation weapons, including an AR-15 assault rifle and an Uzi, police said.

Cops also seized seven marijuana plants, almost 18 grams of crack, 136 hydromorphone pills and 48 Xanax pills, along with $3,124 in cash and 169 rounds of ammunition, authorities said.

Tone faces drug and weapons charges, authorities said.
